The Astral Body and the devas

Devas control Man

Why is the astral body so devastating for man?

Astral body and devas

Agnisuryans: sum total of the whole astral plane

The astral devas, the Agnisuryans are the substance or force of the astral plane, viewing it as the sumtotal of desire, of feeling and of sensation. TCF p623

The desire bodies of all human beings are composed of matter of the second, third and fourth subplanes of the astral plane. TCF p659

Lord Varuna
Devic Lord of the astral plane
emanation of 2nd Ray Lord,
Neptune

In their totality they make up the body of the great deva Lord Varuna, the Lord of the astral plane, who is an emanation of the Lord of the major Ray Two

We might consider these devas: (Agnisuryans)

First, as the substance of the astral plane in its seven grades....

Third, as the vehicle of the deva lord Varuna. TCFp658

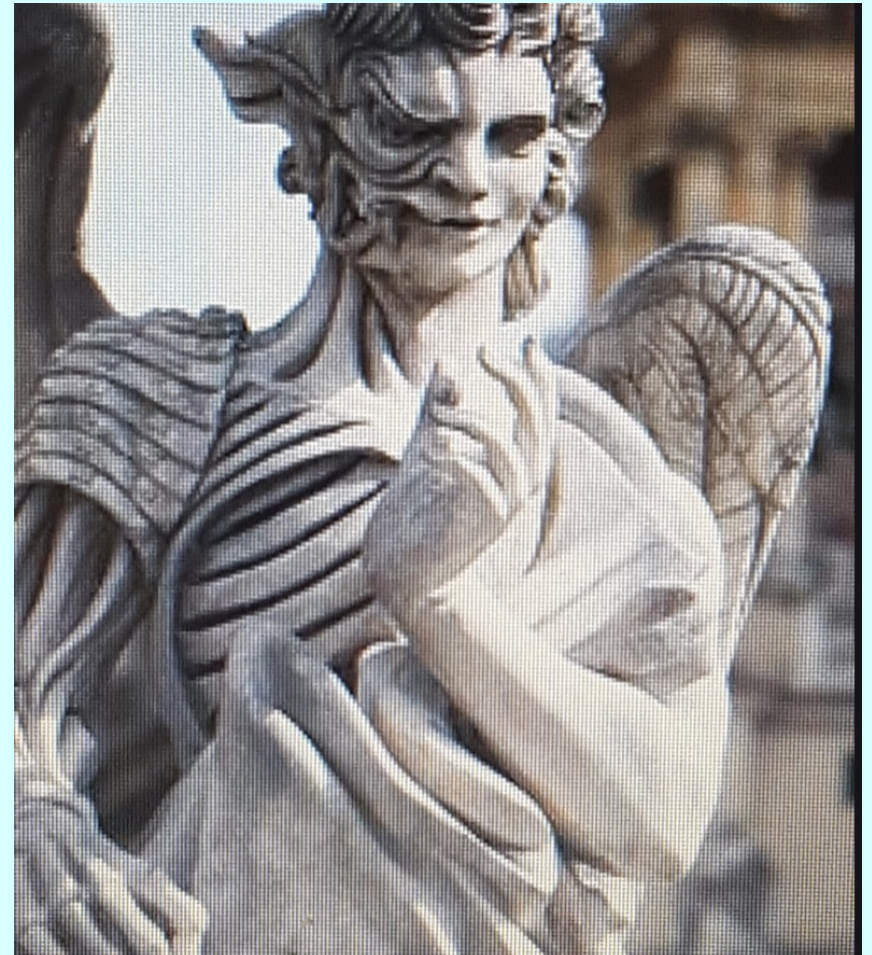

Devas control man

If man only realised it, the devas of the astral plane at present very largely control what he does and says....

Man usually does as his desires and instincts prompt him. TCF p662

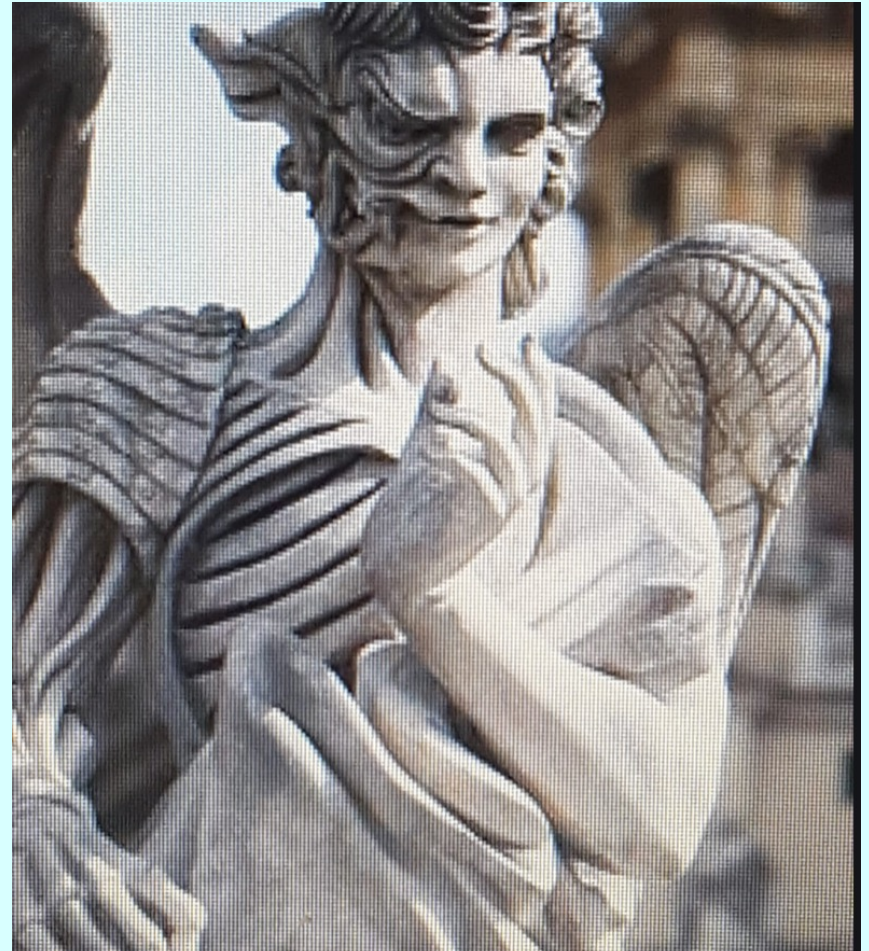

If this evolutionary deva is of a high order (as will be the case in a highly developed man) the vibration will be high, and the desires and instincts will be good and exoterically right. TCF p663

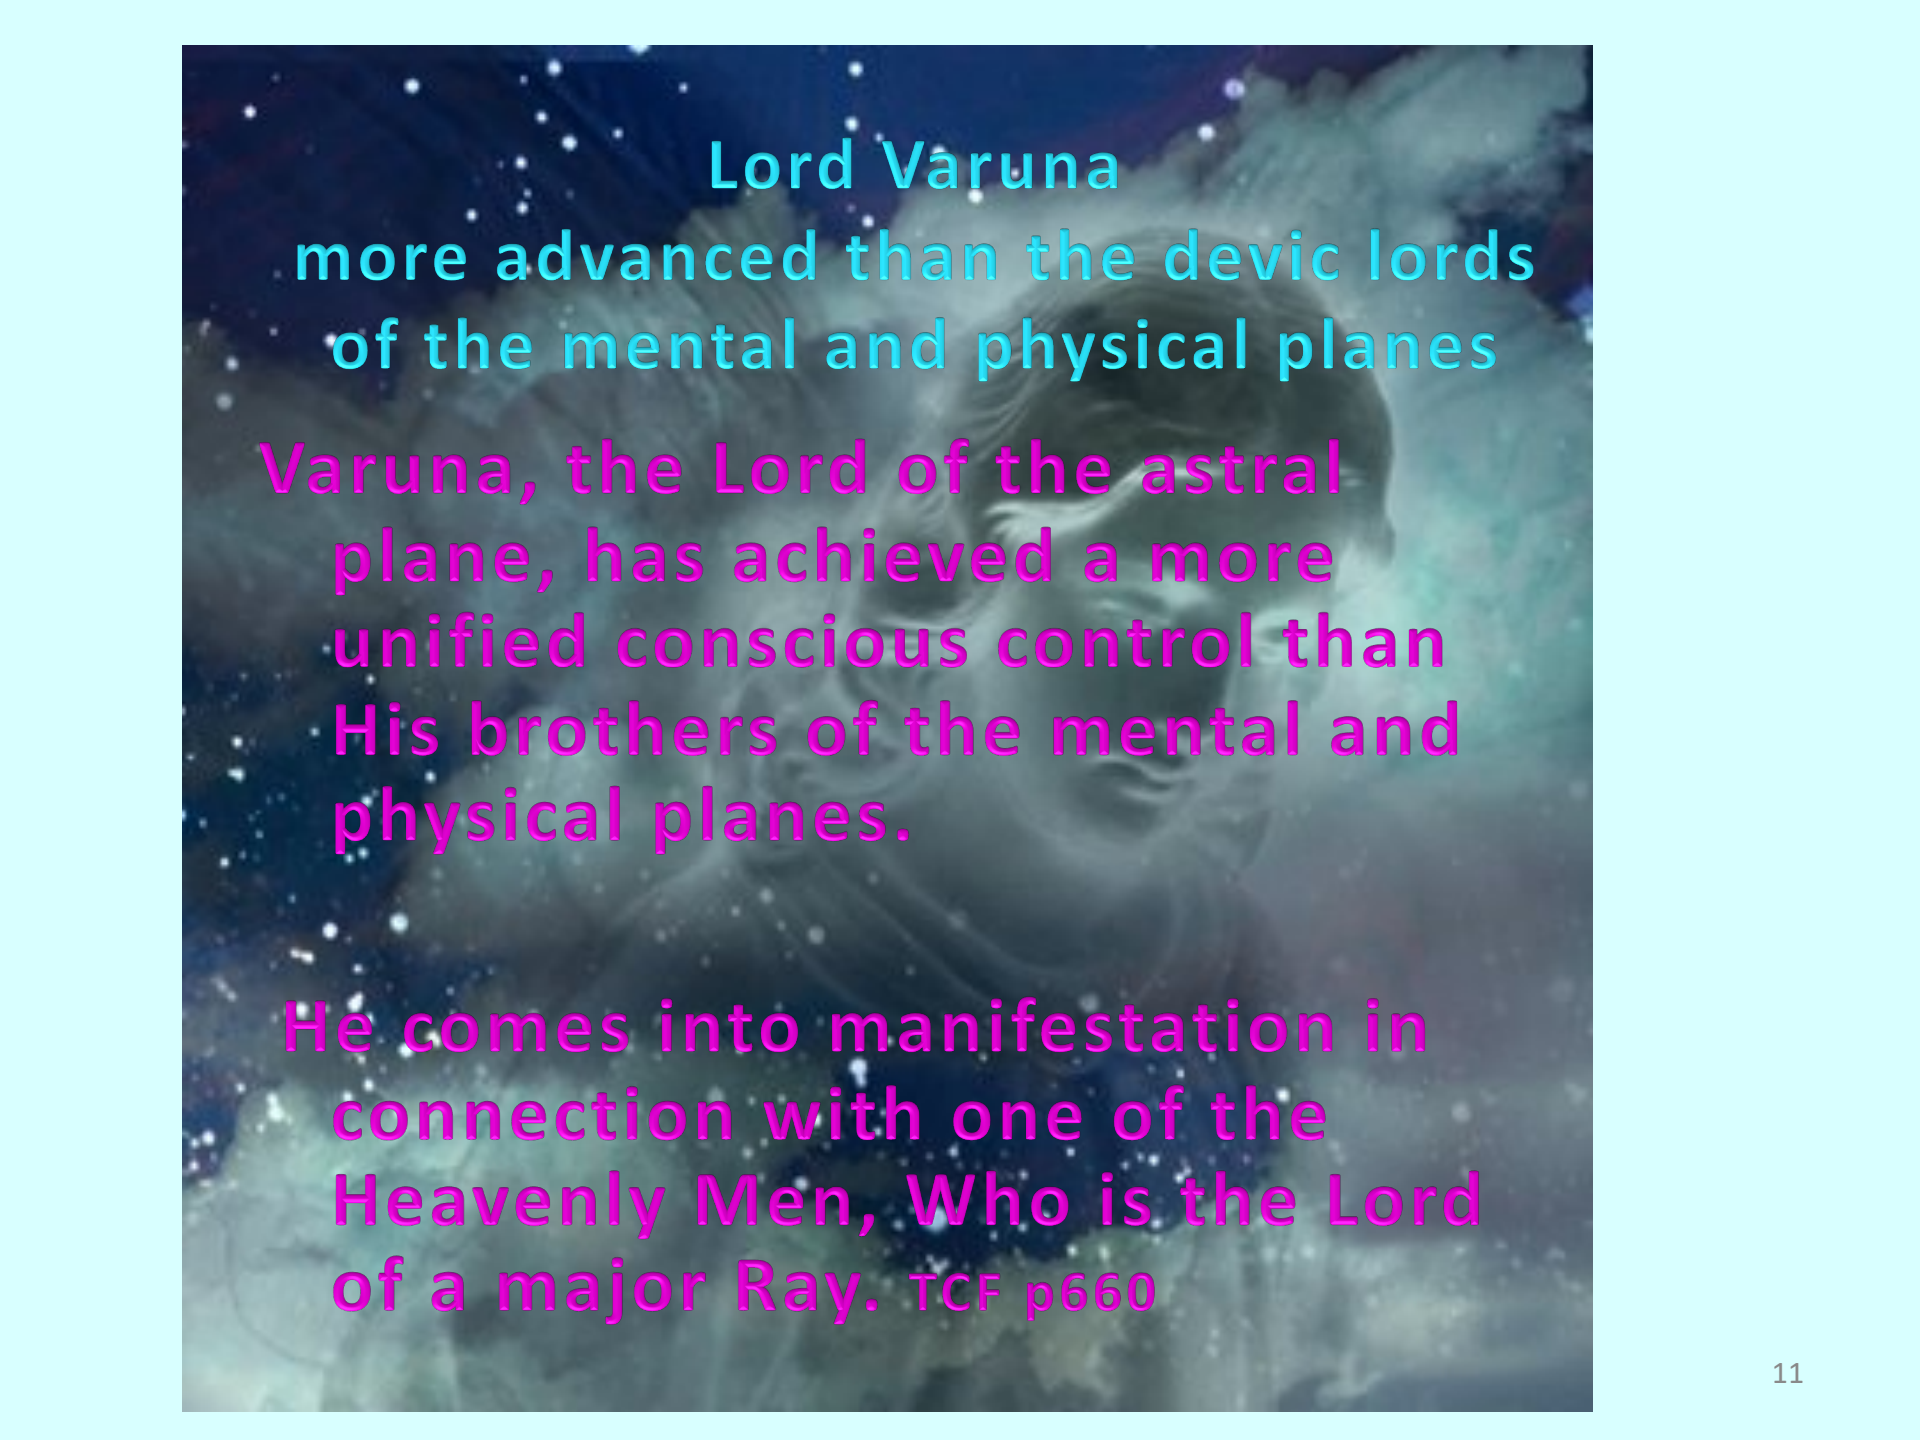

If the deva life is of a low order, the man will demonstrate low and vicious instincts, and desires of a vile calibre. TCF p663

But it's still the deva which is in control....

his goal of evolution (his immediate goal) is to liberate himself from their control in order that he, the real Ego or thinker, may be the dominating influence. TCF p662

Lord Varuna
more advanced than the devic lords
of the mental and physical planes

Varuna, the Lord of the astral plane, has achieved a more unified conscious control than His brothers of the mental and physical planes.

He comes into manifestation in connection with one of the Heavenly Men, Who is the Lord of a major Ray. TCF p660

Why is the astral body so devastating for people?

If Varuna is more advanced than Lords Agni and Krishti, why then is the astral body such a problem for humanity?

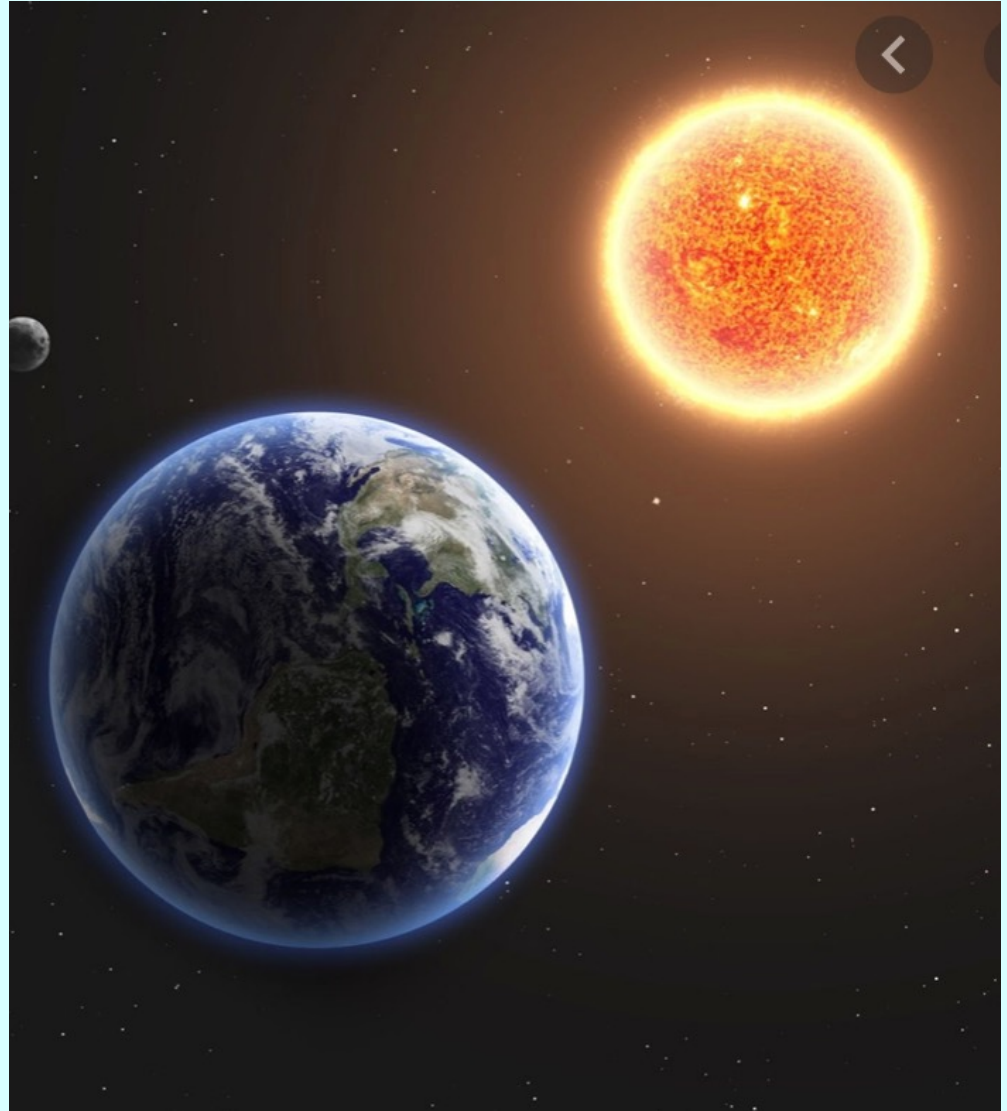

Because

1. Owing to Varuna's advanced stage of development, astral force is stronger than mental or physical force

2. The Logos himself is polarised in his astral
body. TCFp629

[Both solar and planetary]

3. Our Logos has a peculiar link with the ruler of the animal Kingdom which is entirely astral in its point of evolution and as man hasn't yet controlled his animal nature, he's very influenced by it.

TCF p659

These 3 great orders of devas influence the 4th human kingdom

These three orders are (in this solar system) the most potent, especially in this fourth round.

They influence particularly the fourth kingdom of nature, TCF p669

Monadic devas

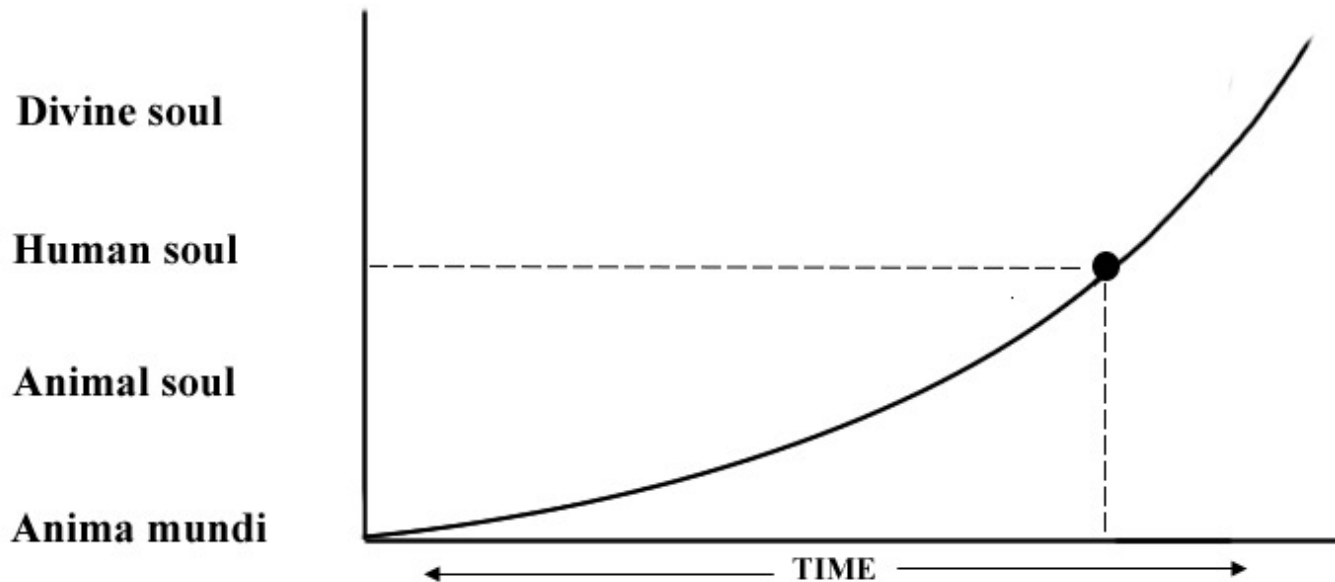

Buddhic devas

They are allied too to the deva forces on the Buddhic plane

Astral devas

The aim for our 2nd solar system: unfoldment of the One Soul or 2nd aspect of divinity

"The entire work is, however, one great unfolding revelation of the soul of God" EPI p 248

It's on the astral plane that the "desperate conflict of the imprisoned soul" takes place and this conflict characterises our planetary life. EA362

Hence

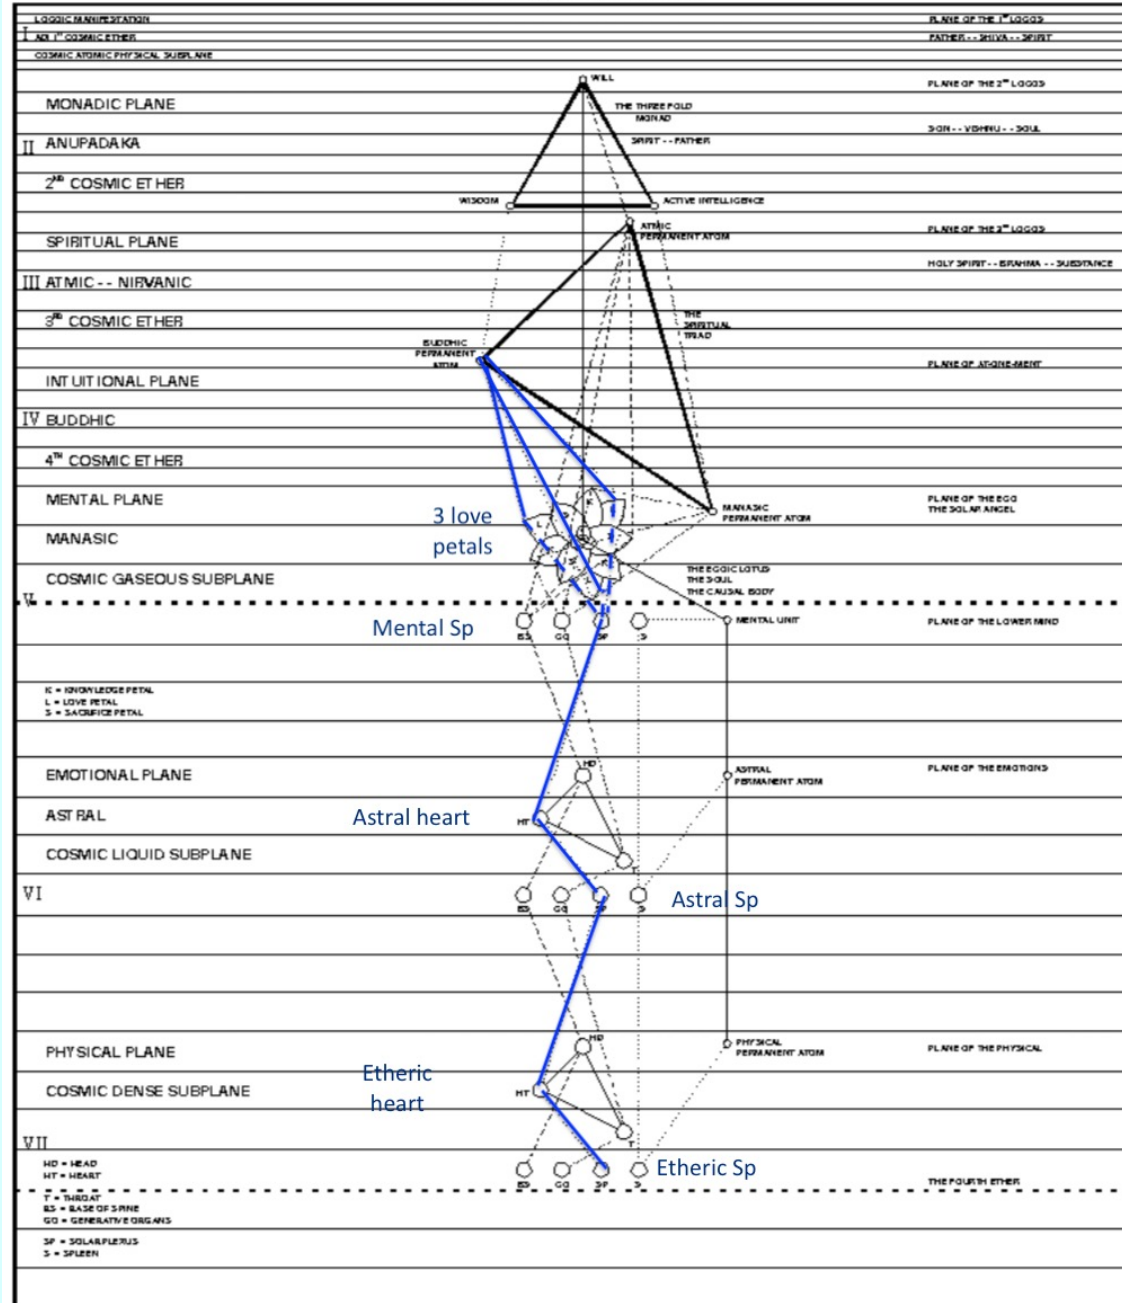

His goal of evolution (his immediate goal) is to liberate himself from their control in order that he, the real Ego or thinker, may be the dominating influence. TCF p662

What's the Logoic plan?

The goal for the astral body is that it should be the reflector in a similar way of the buddhic impulses, which reach the egoic lotus, and the astral permanent atom.

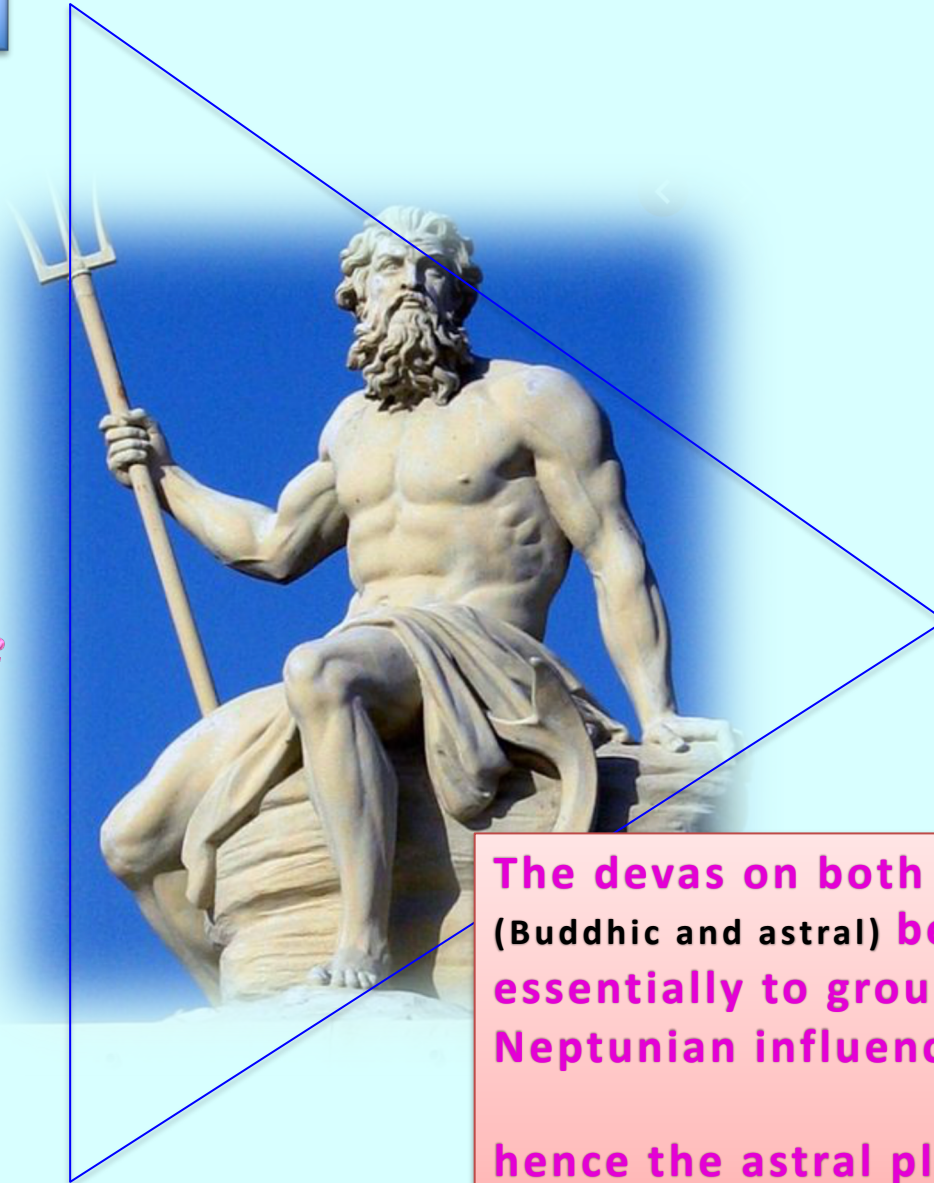

TCF p1103

CHART VII THE EGOIC LOTUS AND THE CENTERS COSMIC PHYSICAL PLANE

Monadic

These devas of the 6th order are closely linked with those of the 2nd order on the monadic plane and with the heart centre of the particular Ray of the Heavenly Man on whose Ray they may be found. TCF p668

Buddhic

Astral

The devas on both these planes (Buddhic and astral) belong essentially to groups over which Neptunian influence presides, hence the astral plane can, and eventually will, directly reflect the buddhic. TCF p901

The 3 great orders of devas form a powerful triangle of force.

Monadic

The greater building devas on the the monadic plane direct the energies of the manipulating devas of the buddhic plane.

Buddhic

The manipulating devas of the fourth cosmic ether will, in due course of evolution, work out the plan in objective perfection through the medium of the living substance of the lesser devas of the liquid or astral plane.

Astral

When they have done this two results will be seen:

- first, the astral plane will perfectly reflect the buddhic plane and,
- secondly, the result of that will be that the physical plane will produce the exact vehicle needed for microcosmic or macrocosmic expression through the force of water, or desire. TCF p901

The aim of the aspirant should be to so train the emotional body that it will become still and clear as a mirror, so that it may reflect perfectly.

His aim should be to make it reflect only the causal body, to take on colour only in line with the great Law, and to move under definite direction and not just as blow the winds of thought, or rise the tides of desire. LOMp337

What should the astral body be like?

A tropical seascape with a red and white boat on clear blue water, reflecting the sky and clouds. The water is exceptionally clear, showing the sandy bottom and the boat's reflection. In the background, there are small islands with palm trees under a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds.

still, serene, unruffled, quiet, at rest, limpid and clear, of a quality mirror like,
of surface even, a limpid reflector, LOM p338

What's the goal of the aspirant?

to transform his astral body from
from a restless, tumultuous "sea
of storm" and passion

To a “sea of glass” limpid and clear, mirror like,

one that accurately transmits the wishes, the desires, the aspirations of the Ego and not of the personality.

How should this be accomplished? LOM p338²⁵
